MEDIA INFORMATION

WASHINGTON MYSTICS 2013 MEDIA GUIDE

For Media Information and Services, please contact the communications department at (202) 527-7535 or credentials@monumentalsports.com

Credentials:

Credentials will be distributed on a game-by-game basis and should be requested in writing on company letterhead by the editor or sports editor of your company. Requests should be emailed to the Communications department at credentials@monumentalsports.com and submitted at least 24 hours in advance. Press and photo credentials are issued to accredited media members and will admit the bearer to the press room, locker rooms and press seating in the arena during the designated time periods. Credentials may be picked up at the press gate located at the corner of 6th and G Streets of Verizon Center, two hours and thirty minutes before tip off. Credentials must be visibly worn at all times.

Press Room:

The press room will be open two-and-a-half hours before game time, during and following the game. The professional intent of the press room is to provide a meeting and working place for writers, reporters, broadcasters and game personnel. Any abuse of the press room and/or press privilege will result in forfeiture of your press pass. The working area of the press room is equipped with a fax machine, telephone, statistics, post-games quotes and other WNBA information.

Locker Room:

In accordance with WNBA policy, both the Mystics and the visiting locker rooms will be open to members of the media for a 30-minute period, ending 60 minutes before the start of a game, and again, after every game for a 30-minute period starting no later than ten minutes following the end of the game. Head Coach Mike Thibault will meet with the media following the game in the interview room directly next to the press room. No autographs are allowed by credentialed media. Violation of this policy will result in forfeiture of your press pass.

Photographers:

Limited space is available at each end of the court for both television and still photographers holding proper credentials. Photographers must stay in the designated areas and are asked to be considerate of spectators seated directly behind them.

Game Notes and Statistics:

Pre-game press notes, media guides and line up sheets will be available in the interview room prior to each game. Game statistics will be distributed to the working media during the game and will be available in the press room.

MONUMENTAL™
SPORTS★ENTERTAINMENT

Monumental Sports & Entertainment owns and operates three professional sports teams: the NBA's Washington Wizards, NHL's Washington Capitals and WNBA's Washington Mystics. Monumental, which merged Lincoln Holdings and Washington Sports and Entertainment on June 10, 2010, also owns and operates Verizon Center, the premier sports and entertainment venue in Washington, D.C. Additionally, the group operates Kettler Capitals Iceplex, the Capitals' state-of-the-art training facility in Arlington, Va., and George Mason University's Patriot Center, located in Fairfax, Va.

Monumental Sports & Entertainment operates in the nation's fifth-biggest media market and is one of the largest integrated sports and entertainment companies in the country with one of the most diverse partnership groups in all of sports.

Ted Leonsis

Founder, Majority Owner, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Monumental Sports & Entertainment

Ted Leonsis is the founder, chairman, majority owner and CEO of Monumental Sports & Entertainment, which owns and operates the Washington Capitals (NHL), Washington Wizards (NBA), Washington Mystics (WNBA) and Verizon Center in downtown Washington, D.C. The partnership also operates Kettler Capitals Iceplex (the Washington Capitals' training facility and front office headquarters) and the George Mason University Patriot Center.

The company was formed in June 2010, serves a thriving regional sports community and is the only privately held company in a top 10 market to own and operate three professional sports teams and its arena. Mr. Leonsis has owned the Washington Capitals since the spring of 1999, and in that timeframe the team has won six Southeast Division titles, a Presidents' Trophy and has recorded more than 100 consecutive sellouts at Verizon Center.

Mr. Leonsis serves on the board of governors for the NBA and NHL as well as the executive committee of the NHL.

AOL - During his almost 14-year career at AOL, Mr. Leonsis served as president of American Online Services Company, president of AOL Studios, president of AOL Web Properties, vice chairman and president of AOL Core Services, vice chairman and president of AOL Audience Business and vice chairman emeritus. The company recorded its greatest levels of innovation and growth under his leadership, and in May 2010 AOL named a central office tower The Leonsis Creative Center in his honor. Mr. Leonsis retired from active management of AOL in 2006.

Venture Capital Investor - Mr. Leonsis is now a partner in the newly created "speed-up capital" Revolution Growth Fund II. In a 25-year period he has personally made investments and owned equity in numerous companies, including Groupon, Google, AOL, Revolution Money, AddThis, Preview Travel (Travelocity), GridPoint, Mahalo, MobilePosse, ObjectVideo, SB Nation, TidalTV, Zedge, Triporati, Personal, I-Village, Proxicom, ePals, SnagFilms and MediaBank. Most recently he led the Revolution Growth investments in FedBid, Resonate Networks and Echo360.

Filmmaker and Digital Entrepreneur - Mr. Leonsis created and produced the award-winning film Nanking. The film premiered at the 2007 Sundance Film Festival and was awarded the Documentary Editors Award. The film went on to win the Peabody Award and the Emmy Award. The film was distributed theatrically, appeared on HBO and is one of the most viewed documentaries of all time because of its wide distribution in theater and on television throughout China. Mr. Leonsis also produced the documentary film Kicking It, which premiered at the 2008 Sundance Film Festival and aired on ESPN. He also produced A Fighting Chance, which aired on ESPN in 2010.

Mr. Leonsis is the founder, chairman and largest shareholder in SnagFilms, the web's leading online distribution channel for documentary and independent films. SnagFilms also owns and operates indieWIRE.com, the leading site for news and information about independent and documentary films. SnagFilms has more than 3,000 films in its digital library, and its iPad app is a top 10 entrant in the entertainment category.

Board of Directors - Mr. Leonsis is an investor and serves on the board of directors of Groupon, where he is vice chairman, and AddThis. He also serves on the board of directors at American Express, where he heads the technology and innovation committee; Rosetta Stone; and Alcatel-Lucent, where he is on the technology committee. Mr. Leonsis also is on the board of directors of Georgetown University, his alma mater. He also serves on the charity boards of DC CAP (District of Columbia College Access Program) and CSF – DC (College Success Foundation – District of Columbia).

Philanthropy - Through the Leonsis Foundation, his sports teams, SnagFilms and his family's personal giving, more than 400 charities were served and supported during the last 12 months. Highlighted charities and causes include Best Buddies, DC Central Kitchen, See Forever Foundation, Venture Philanthropy Partners, Street Soccer USA, YouthAIDS, GlobalGiving.org, DC CAP, D.C. College Success Foundation, Potomac School, Georgetown University, Children's Hospital, Potomac Valley Amateur Hockey Association, Salvation Army Angle Tree, Alliance for Lupus Research, Serve DC, Fort Dupont Ice Arena and Ice Hockey Club, USO of Metropolitan Washington, Capital Area Food Bank, Flashes of Hope, Inova Health System Foundation, UNICEF, obesity prevention and numerous local schools, cancer research and awareness programs.

Author - Mr. Leonsis has authored numerous books, including Blue Magic: The People, Power and Politics Behind the IBM PC and The Business of Happiness: 6 Secrets to Extraordinary Success in Work and Life.

Sheila C. Johnson

Vice Chairman Monumental Sports & Entertainment, President & Managing Partner Washington Mystics

Sheila C. Johnson is a successful entrepreneur and impassioned philanthropist.

As CEO of Salamander Hotels and Resorts, a hospitality company she founded in 2005, Ms. Johnson oversees a growing portfolio of luxury properties. Grand Golf Resorts of Florida features three golf and family resorts reaching from the Gulf to the Atlantic – Innisbrook Resort near Tampa, Reunion Resort in Orlando, and Hammock Beach Resort in Palm Coast. The ultra-luxurious Salamander Resort & Spa will make its highly anticipated debut in August 2013 in Middleburg, Virginia, in the heart of Virginia's horse and wine country.

Ms. Johnson is Vice Chairman of Monumental Sports & Entertainment and President and Managing Partner of the WNBA's Washington Mystics. She is the only African-American woman to have ownership in three professional sports teams, including the NBA's Washington Wizards and the NHL's Washington Capitals.

Ms. Johnson is a partner in ProJet Aviation, a comprehensive aviation service company specializing in aviation consulting, aircraft acquisitions, management, and charter services. She is also a partner in Mistral, the makers of fine bath, body, and home products. In November 2012 she launched her own collection of luxury scarves, inspired by her travels around the world and manufactured in Prato, Italy.

Ms. Johnson has long been a powerful influence in the entertainment industry, starting with her work as founding partner of Black Entertainment Television. She has served as executive producer of four documentary films, including Kicking It, which premiered at the 2008 Sundance Film Festival; A Powerful Noise, which premiered at the 2008 Tribeca Film Festival; She Is the Matador; and The Other City, a critically acclaimed portrayal of the HIV/AIDS crisis in Washington DC, which premiered at the 2010 Tribeca Film Festival.

In May 2011, Ms. Johnson joined the AOL Huffington Post Media Group as Strategic Advisor for Multicultural and African-American Initiatives.

In 2006, Ms. Johnson was named global ambassador for CARE, a leading humanitarian organization that combats global poverty by empowering women. Since 2011, she has served as a member of Accordia Global Health Foundation's International Council, rallying support for the foundation's efforts to overcome the burden of infectious diseases in Africa. Ms. Johnson is also a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

A fervent supporter of education and the arts, she serves on the Board of Governors of Parsons, the New School for Design in New York and Sundance Institute. She is also a board member of the ANNIKA Foundation and is on the Executive Committee of the United States Golf Association.

An accomplished violinist, Ms. Johnson received a Bachelor of Arts in music from the University of Illinois, as well as honorary degrees from numerous other institutions. She lives in Middleburg, VA, is married to the Honorable William T. Newman, Jr., and has two children.

Dick Patrick

Vice Chairman and Chief Operating Officer, Monumental Sports & Entertainment

President, Washington Capitals

Dick Patrick, along with Ted Leonsis, is one of the original partners in the group that became Monumental Sports & Entertainment. As the vice chairman and chief operating officer, Mr. Patrick assists Leonsis in all facets of owning three professional sports franchises – Washington Capitals, Washington Wizards and the Washington Mystics – and the management and operation of Verizon Center. Mr. Patrick has assumed responsibility for upgrading and improving the arena, which has seen changes designed to enhance the overall fan experience.

A mainstay for the Washington Capitals' franchise for more than two decades, the owner, president and alternate governor continues to lead the club with his tireless effort and intense desire to continue a family tradition – engraving the Patrick name onto the Stanley Cup.

Mr. Patrick, who joined the Capitals prior to the 1982-83 season, guides the team on a daily basis. The former chairman of the NHL Finance Committee, Mr. Patrick has been instrumental in the Capitals' long-term success as a franchise both on and off the ice. Mr. Patrick was a leader in the conception and development of the Kettler Capitals Iceplex, the team's state-of-the-art training center and office building that opened in 2006 in Arlington, Va.

Raul Fernandez

Vice Chairman, Monumental Sports & Entertainment

Raul Fernandez is the chairman of ObjectVideo, a private technology company that develops video analytics software for automated security surveillance. He is also a special advisor to General Atlantic Partners, a growth equity firm with more than $17 billion under management. Mr. Fernandez founded Proxicom, an internet services company he started in 1991 with $40,000 in savings. After taking Proxicom public in 1999 and growing his business to more than $200 million in revenue, he sold it to Dimension Data in 2001. Mr. Fernandez also serves on the board of Liz Claiborne; TROW, a Toronto-based engineering and consulting firm; ValueOptions, the nation's largest independent behavioral healthcare company and Network Solutions, the leader in web-based domain name and related services.

Mr. Fernandez, a native Washingtonian, is an active philanthropist in D.C. regional non-profits, focusing his energy primarily on educational reform. In 2000, he co-founded Venture Philanthropy Partners, a philanthropic investment organization based in Washington, D.C. Mr. Fernandez sits on various non-profit boards, including America's Promise, the D.C. College Access Program (DCCAP), the D.C. Public Education Fund and the Fernandez Foundation. He holds a bachelor's degree in economics from the University of Maryland.

Scott Brickman

Scott Brickman is CEO of The Brickman Group, the largest commercial landscape maintenance firm in the U.S. The company, which has more than 10,000 employees and more than 170 company-owned and operated branches serving 30 states, provides quality commercial landscape services to thousands of office parks, hotels, cemeteries, healthcare facilities, retail centers, homeowners associations and schools around the country. Joining the company in 1986, Mr. Brickman progressively advanced to oversee operations in their Northeast, Mid-Atlantic and Southeast division before being named CEO in 1998 at the age of 35.

Outside the company, Mr. Brickman has served as a board member and in an advisory capacity to many organizations, including Kellermeyer Building Services, ICON, Sequel Health Services and Kratos Global Strategies. He and his company have been the recipient of numerous awards, including Ernst and Young's Entrepreneur of the Year Award. The Brickman Group was recognized with the Society of Financial Professionals' National Capital Business Ethics Award. Mr. Brickman and his wife, Patrice, are involved in many philanthropic causes, including Neediest Kids and Visible Men, where Mr. Brickman sits on the Board, the National Center for Women and Children, Stepping Stones Shelter, the Barbara Bush Foundation Celebration of Reading and the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Neil D. Cohen

Neil D. Cohen is the president and chief executive officer of District Photo Inc., which is the largest direct-to-consumer digital print, variable data printer and gift fulfillment service in the world. Mr. Cohen started with the company in 1976 and has been president and CEO since 1989. The company, which has facilities in Beltsville, Md., Chambersburg, Pa., Phoenix and Newton Abbott in the United Kingdom, provides services to most major on-line providers, major retailers and to its company-owned brands. Prior to the digital revolution, District Photo was the largest independent mail order and wholesale photo film processor in the United States and the United Kingdom.

Mr. Cohen, a native of Washington, D.C., is the past president of the Photo Marketing Association International. He is also involved in numerous business groups, including the World Presidents' Organization, and a wide range of philanthropic organizations serving children's needs, education, faith-based organizations and health-related causes, frequently holding committee or chair responsibilities in these groups.

Jack Davies

Jack Davies was the founder and president of AOL International and now serves on the board of directors of Scholastic, the global children's publishing and media company. Prior to joining AOL in 1993, Mr. Davies was managing director of Citicorp's London-based consumer mortgage business after serving as vice president, Europe, for RCA Records. He began his career at General Electric where he held numerous senior consumer marketing positions. Mr. Davies earned an MBA in marketing (1973) and a bachelor's degree in political science (1972) from the University of Rochester.

Active in philanthropy in the D.C. area, Mr. Davies serves on a number of boards including the Board and Executive Committee of Venture Philanthropy Partners. In addition he is on the board of See Forever Foundation, CharityWorks and The Washington Scholarship Fund.

Richard D. Fairbank

Richard D. Fairbank is founder, chairman and chief executive officer of Capital One Financial Corporation, a broadly diversified financial services company ranked 130th on the Fortune 500. Mr. Fairbank founded Capital One in 1988 based on his belief that the power of information, technology and testing could be harnessed to bring highly customized financial products directly to consumers. Headquartered in McLean, Va., Capital One is the seventh-largest bank in the United States, offering a broad spectrum of financial products and services to consumers, small businesses and commercial clients. With the company's newly acquired subsidiary, Chevy Chase Bank, F.S.B., Capital One has approximately 1,000 branch locations in New York, New Jersey, Louisiana, Texas, Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia. Additionally, Capital One has international businesses in the United Kingdom and Canada.

Capital One has been widely recognized for its entrepreneurial culture, progressive work place, and community engagement. Recently, Capital One has been named to: Fortune's 100 Best Companies to Work For, Fortune's 20 Great Employers for New Grads, BusinessWeek's Best Places to Launch a Career, Working Mother's 100 Best Companies and DiversityInc's Top 50 Companies for Diversity. Capital One also was named to Fortune magazine's list of Top Companies for Leaders, ranking second in North America and fifth globally. Under Mr. Fairbank's leadership, Capital One has demonstrated a strong commitment to philanthropy and volunteerism, supporting a number of area programs focused on community redevelopment and youth education, including DC Cares, the DC College Access Program and Junior Achievement. Mike Thibault

Head Coach & General Manager

Mike Thibault was named the head coach/general manager of the Washington Mystics on December 18, 2012. He currently has the most wins of any active coach with a 206-134 (.605) record in the last 10 years. Prior to joining the Mystics, Thibault was the head coach of the Connecticut Sun where he was twice named WNBA Coach of the Year (2006, 2008) and led the team to eight playoff appearances and two WNBA Finals. He set numerous milestones during his time with the Sun, including becoming the second coach in WNBA history to reach 200 wins, the third-fastest coach in league history to reach 100 wins (doing so in 159 games) and the fourth WNBA head coach to work at least 300 regular season games.

From 2003 through 2008, Thibault and the Sun won 127 regular season games, tying with the Detroit Shock for the most victories during that six-year span. The Sun were also one of two teams to have six consecutive winning seasons. Connecticut posted consecutive 26-8 records in 2005 and 2006, which are still the best regular season results for an Eastern Conference team.

Thibault assisted in the blockbuster trade that sent Lindsay Whalen and the No. 2 pick in the 2010 WNBA Draft to Minnesota in exchange for second-year guard Renee Montgomery and the No. 1 pick in 2010, which the team used to select Tina Charles. Under Thibault's tutelage, Charles was named the league's MVP in 2012.

Prior to joining the Sun in 2003, Thibault had spent numerous years in various roles with NBA teams. He was an assistant coach with the Milwaukee Bucks and also served as a scout for the Atlanta Hawks and the New York Knicks.

Thibault joined the coaching ranks in 1978 as a scout for the Los Angeles Lakers and was quickly promoted to director of scouting and assistant coach in 1980. During his tenure with the Lakers, the team won two NBA Championships. From 1982-1986, he served as the director of scouting for the Chicago Bulls when the organization selected Michael Jordan, Charles Oakley and John Paxson.

Thibault served as the general manager and head coach of the Omaha Racers of the Continental Basketball Association (CBA) where his team captured the league's title in 1988. During his tenure with the Racers, the team made nine consecutive playoff appearances, and Thibault was named the 1993 Sportsman of the Year by Omaha broadcasters. He ranks sixth on the CBA all-time coaching victory list (236). Thibault also coached the Calgary 88's of the World Basketball League (WBL) where he received Coach of the Year honors in 1988.

Thibault has had an extensive collaboration with USA Basketball. He most recently served as an assistant coach to the women's National Team that won gold during the 2008 Beijing Olympics. He was on the coaching staff of the 2006 National Team that captured bronze during the World Championships, was the head coach of the men's team that participated in the 1993 FIBA World Championship qualifying tournament and was also at the helm of the men's team that won the silver medal during the 1995 Pan American Games.

Thibault and his wife Nanci have been staunch supporters of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation since Mike's days with the Omaha Racers. In 2007, the Thibaults were co-chairs of GREAT STRIDES, the primary fundraiser of the CF Foundation's Connecticut Chapter. Mike and Nanci have two children. Eric is an assistant coach with the Mystics basketball team while Carly is attending Monmouth University on a basketball scholarship.

Marianne Stanley

Assistant Coach

Marianne Stanley returns for her third consecutive season on the Washington Mystics bench. Stanley coached the team as an assistant in 2001 and was the head coach in 2002 and 2003. Stanley has over 20 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level with stops at Stanford, University of California-Berkeley and University of Southern California. Stanley is also very familiar with the WNBA. In addition to her stop in Washington, she has also been an assistant coach with the Los Angeles Sparks and the New York Liberty.

Stanley has earned numerous accolades throughout her career. She was named the Pac-10 Conference Coach of the Year in 1993, the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year in 1984 and 1985, and an All-American selection as a player in 1975 and 1976 at Immaculata College.

She started her coaching career at Old Dominion University where she won the 1978 WNIT Championship and consecutive AIAW titles in 1979 and 1980. Stanley and ODU captured their third National Championship in 1985 following a 31-3 season. Nancy Liberman, Anne Donovan and Inge Nissen were some of the future hall of famers coached by Stanley at ODU.

In 2002, she was voted the WNBA Coach of the Year. That same year she was also inducted in the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame. She finished her third season as an assistant coach with UMMC Ekaterinberg which features WNBA players Cappie Pondexter, Sandrine Gruda, Candace Parker and the Mystics' own Crystal Langhorne.

Off the court, Stanley has been an active member in the community, lending a hand to groups such as Hoops for Africa, the YMCA, Hope House Foundation and National Multiple Sclerosis Society. She was recently induced in the Philadelphia Sports Hall of Fame.

Stanley's daughter and son-in-law, Michelle and Jonathan Worden, live in Long Beach, Calif., with their children, Madelyn, Jonathan, Jr. and Dylan.

Eric Thibault

Assistant Coach

Eric Thibault is in his first season as an assistant coach with the Washington Mystics. He has had stints with Virginia Commonwealth University and the Connecticut Sun.

During the 2012-13 season, Thibault assisted with the recruiting process and player development for VCU. He played an integral role in the team's transition to the Atlantic-10 conference. The Rams qualified for the conference tournament as the second youngest team in the A-10.

As a member of the Sun's coaching staff, Thibault was responsible for preparing reports on opponent personnel, conducting individual workouts with players, managing season statistics, constructing opponent film edits, and scouting opponents. He has also worked on the floor with WNBA All-Star point guards Kara Lawson, Lindsay Whalen, and Renee Montgomery. Thibault was also a key member of the coaching staff that assisted the Sun during their playoff run in 2012.

From 2010-12, Thibault served as a graduate assistant coach with the St. John's women's basketball program. During that time, the Red Storm compiled a 46-21 record and received a pair of at-large bids to the NCAA Tournament. In 2011-12, St. John's reached its first-ever NCAA Sweet 16 after knocking off Oklahoma on its home floor, and earned its highest-ever end-of-season ranking in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll at No. 15.
As a graduate assistant, Thibault's responsibilities included assisting the coaching staff with scouting and game preparation, organizing the team's managers and practice players, coordinating film exchange, and tracking game and season statistics.

Thibault graduated Cum Laude in English from the University of Missouri in December of 2009. He obtained his Master's degree in Sports Management from St. John's University in 2012.

Navin Hettiarachchi

MS, Dip MT, ATC, CASR, CSCS, C/PES
Head Athletic Trainer & Strength and Conditioning Coach

Navin Hettiarachchi enters his eighth season as the certified head athletic trainer for the Washington Mystics. He is responsible for the team's overall medical care, rehabilitation, strength and conditioning, and sports performance.

Navin bridges the gap between game performance and rehabilitation by enhancing the players' physical health and functional abilities. His primary concerns are injury prevention, increased strength and conditioning and the treatment of movement dysfunctions.

Navin earned a bachelor's degree in sports medicine from West Virginia Wesleyan College and a master's degree in sports medicine from the United States Sports Academy. He has learned and trained under world-renowned physical therapists, chiropractors and osteopaths, and he's earned multiple certifications in rehabilitation of musculoskeletal injuries, including: a Graduate Diploma in Manipulative Therapy (Dip MT), Certificate in Advanced Sports Rehabilitation (CASR), Certificate in Spinal Manual Therapy, Performance Enhancement Specialist (PES).

Instead of relying on one treatment technique, Navin combines a variety of disciplines to create a unique and innovative approach, which enables an athlete to get the best care. Navin blends skillful manual therapy and therapeutic exercises using evidence-based best practices and scientific literature. Navin is currently learning dynamic neuromuscular stabilization - developmental kinesiology approach, according to Pavel Kolar.

Since 2000, Navin has also been the head athletic trainer for the Sports Therapy and Rehabilitation (STAR) clinic in Washington D.C., where he treats athletic and non-athletic injuries. This work has provided an opportunity to care for a wider patient population with a variety of injuries. From 2001-2003, Navin worked with the Washington Redskins during their mini-camps, pre-season training and home games. Since 2003, Navin has worked with the Washington Wizards as an assistant athletic trainer. Other work at notable events and locations includes: The U.S. Olympic Training Center in Chula Vista, Calif., seven years at the Jordan Brand Classic All-American basketball game, and many Verizon Center entertainment events that require heath care service.

Navin is continuously advancing his knowledge and skills. He has traveled to countries such as Australia, Ireland, England and Thailand to learn from pioneers in healthcare.

He loves playing sports, especially cricket, flag football, rugby, soccer and basketball. He was born and raised in Sri Lanka and now resides in Washington, D.C.

Mystics Celebrate 15th Anniversary Season:

The Washington Mystics commemorated their 15th anniversary season in 2012 by unveiling a series of fan initiatives throughout the year. The metropolitan area's most successful female sports team was introduced to the Washington D.C. sport landscape in 1997 before tipping off their inaugural home game on June 19, 1998, against the Utah Starzz.

All-Time Mystics Team:

The highlight of the 15th anniversary season consisted of a digital campaign that allowed fans to vote for the All-Time Mystics Team. Online voting started on May 19 with the all-time team being unveiled individually during the Olympic break (Jul. 14-Aug. 12). The entire team was honored on August 19 during the halftime of a thrilling overtime win over the Chicago Sky 75-71. All-Star forward Crystal Langhorne was announced on July 16 as the first player named to the Washington Mystics All-Time team. Following Langhorne were former Mystics players Murriel Page, Vicky Bullett, Nikki McCray and Chamique Holdsclaw.

Inova Health System Marquee Partnership Continues:

On April 19, 2012, the Washington Mystics announced that the team will continue their marquee partnership with Inova for a second consecutive year. Mystics players will again wear Inova's name and logo on the front of their home and away jerseys, shooting shirts and community apparel during the upcoming 2013 WNBA season. Mystics have raised over $180,000 for breast cancer initiatives over the past four seasons.

2012 Season Windup:

The Mystics ended the 2012 season 5-29, going 4-13 at home and 1-16 on the road. The team went 3-19 against Eastern Conference opponents, including a 75-71 overtime victory over the Chicago Sky on August 19 at home. The Mystics' other two wins against Eastern Conference teams came against the Indiana Fever at home in a 67-66 victory on June 15 and against the New York Liberty on the road 70-53 on July 13, the Mystics one road victory of the season and the first time the Mystics' won on the road in the regular season versus the Liberty since August 16, 2009.

Mystics Milestones:

Forward, Crystal Langhorne reached her 2,000th career point in the Mystics matchup against the Minnesota Lynx on August 17. Langhorne scored 12 points total during the contest. Forward Monique Currie scored her 2,000th career point with 23.9 seconds remaining in the second quarter in the Mystics' loss to the Seattle Storm on June 26. Langhorne collected her 1,000th career rebound against the Connecticut Sun on June 3, pulling five total in the contest. Center Michelle Snow reached her 3,000th career point with 3:24 remaining in the fourth quarter of the Mystics' 77-79 loss to the Minnesota Lynx on May 30.

Season's Best:

The Mystics scored season highs in their win over the Phoenix Mercury on July 1, posting their highest scoring game of the season with a 90-77 victory. The Mystics scored a season high 27 points in the first quarter, holding the Mercury to 18 points in the first. The Mystics also scored a season high 50 points in the first half. Washington connected on 32 field goals, also a season high, and shot 22-for-31 from the free throw line.

Overtime Thriller:

The Mystics defeated the Chicago Sky on August 19 in their first home game at Verizon Center after the Olympic break, defeating the Sky in a 75-71 overtime win. Guard Matee Ajavon and forward Crystal Langhorne led the pack with 22 and 18 points respectively. Ajavon and Langhorne combined for 18 of the team's 28 first half points. The Mystics outscored the Sky 16-6 in the second quarter, leading the Sky 28-25 at halftime. Ajavon, who led all scorers with 22 points, shot 7-for-12 from the field, 6-for-8 from the free throw line and 2-for-4 from three point range. Ajavon hit a clutch three-pointer with 1.7 seconds remaining in the game, tying it up at 62 which forced the overtime. Langhorne played a game-high 43:06 minutes and shot 8-for-14 from the field. Guard Jasmine Thomas dished out a career high eight assists with five coming in the third quarter alone. Thomas scored eight points including a clutch three-pointer with 16 seconds left in overtime, regaining the lead at 73-71. Forward Monique Currie scored 10 points, connecting on two key free throws which clinched the overtime win.

Double Trouble:

Center Ashley Robinson posted her first double-double of the season in a loss to the New York Liberty on September 16. Robinson led the team with 10 rebounds and scored 10 points, shooting 5-for-8 from the field. Forward Crystal Langhorne posted her fourth double-double of the season in a loss to the Atlanta Dream on August 24. Langhorne scored 17 points along with a game-high 10 rebounds. Langhorne's third double-double of the season came in a loss to the Seattle Storm on June 26. Langhorne scored a team-high 20 points along with 10 rebounds in the contest. Langhorne posted her second double-double of the season with a game-high 22 points and 13 rebounds in a victory over the Indiana Fever on June 15. Her first double-double of the season came over the Tulsa Shock on May 26 where she scored 14 points and grabbed 10 rebounds in the Mystics win. Last season Langhorne finished sixth in the league in rebounds per game (7.6), led the team in rebounds in 15 games, posted seven 10+ rebound games and collected seven double-doubles during the season. Center

Michelle Snow posted her first double-double of the season against the New York Liberty on June 8 where she scored 10 points and led the team with 12 rebounds in her first start of the season. Snow's second double-double this season came in a loss to the Connecticut Sun on July 10 where she scored 10 points along with 11 rebounds.

Rookie Power:

Rookie guard Natalie Novosel posted career highs in several categories in the Mystics win over the Phoenix Mercury on July 1. Novosel played a caree- high 22 minutes, scoring a career-high 12 points in the win. The rookie out of Notre Dame connected on 5-for-7 from the free throw line and grabbed a career-high six rebounds along with a game-high four steals.

Perfect from the Line:

Guard Matee Ajavon shot a perfect 8-for-8 from the charity stripe in the Mystics' matchup against the Atlanta Dream on September 14. Ajavon led the team and ranked 17th in the league in free throw shooting, connecting on 67-for-81 from the free throw line (.827). In 2011, Ajavon averaged her highest free throw percentage, .829, connecting on 116-for-140 from the charity stripe.

Ajavon for Three:

In the Mystics' loss to the Atlanta Dream on August 24, guard Matee Ajavon had a stellar performance from behind the arc. Ajavon scored 16 of her 20 points in the fourth quarter, shooting 5-for-9 from the field, 2-for-2 from the free throw line, and a commanding 4-for-6 from three-point range in the final period. Ajavon's surge brought the Mystics within eight points down the stretch. Ajavon set a new career high with four made three-point shots.

Career High Night:

Guard Matee Ajavon had another stellar performance in her second game of the season, scoring a game-high 20 points from off the bench in a loss to the Minnesota Lynx on May 30. Ajavon shot 8-for-13 from the field and 2-for-5 from three-point range in 28 minutes of play. Ajavon collected a career high seven steals with four coming in the third quarter. Last season Ajavon ranked seventh in the league in steals, averaging 1.68 steals per game. Her previous career high was five steals against the Phoenix Mercury on July 15, 2011.

Home Openers:

The Mystics are now 8-7 in regular season home openers, dropping their opener for the second consecutive season against the Chicago Sky in front of a crowd of 11,415 at the Verizon Center. The Mystics were within three points, 42-45, at the start of the fourth quarter, outscoring the Sky 17-7 in the third quarter. However, the Sky then outscored the Mystics 24-15 in the fourth quarter and went on to win 69-57. After falling to the Chicago Sky on June 11, 2011, the Mystics ended their three consecutive home opener winning streak in front of a crowd of 11,943 at the Verizon Center.

Michelle Snow Joins Mystics:

On February 9, 2012, the Washington Mystics signed free agent center Michelle Snow. A 10-year veteran, Snow averaged 9.0 points, 6.4 rebounds and 1.0 blocks in 334 career games with the Houston Comets, Atlanta Dream, San Antonio Silver Stars and most recently, the Chicago Sky. Last season, Snow averaged 5.9 points per game and 5.4 rebounds per game in her first year with the team.

August 15, 2010 In a game against Indiana, rookie Tina Charles of the Connecticut Sun sets WNBA single-season records for most double-doubles and total rebounds in a single season.

September 7, 2010 Atlanta's Angel McCoughtry scores a WNBA Playoffs record 42 points in Game Two of the Eastern Conference Finals, a 105-93 victory over the New York Liberty. In that same game, New York's Cappie Pondexter tallies 36 points. Their combined total of 78 points set a WNBA record for most total points by two players in the same post-season game.

September 16, 2010 The Seattle Storm won the 2010 WNBA championship by defeating the Atlanta Dream 87-84 in Game 3 of the WNBA Finals in Atlanta's Philips Arena. The Storm swept the Dream 3-0 in the best-of-five series and Seattle center Lauren Jackson, the league's regular season MVP, was named MVP of The Finals. It is the Storm's second championship and first since 2004.

December 3, 2010 Donna Orender steps down as WNBA President to launch her own marketing, media and strategy company.

February 28, 2011 As part of WNBA Live - Manchester 2011 – a new, multiyear partnership between the Manchester (Eng.) City Council and the NBA, WNBA and USA Basketball – it is announced that the Atlanta Dream will participate in the first WNBA game to be played in Europe. The game is set for May 29, 2011 vs. Standard Life Team GB (Great Britain's national team) at Manchester Evening News Arena. The partnership will promote women in sport and encourage participation in team sports.

March 3, 2011 At a press conference at the AT&T Center in San Antonio, the WNBA announces that the Silver Stars will host the 2011 All-Star Game for the first time in franchise history. The contest, set for Saturday, July 23, is to be the second WNBA All-Star Game played in a Western Conference venue and the first since the 2000 game was held in Phoenix.

March 8, 2011 In honor of Women's History Month and International Women's Day, the WNBA officially announced plans to celebrate its 15th season. Among those would be the selection of the Top 15 Players and the Top 15 Moments in league history. Key among other planned celebrations would be a nationally televised game (ESPN2) in which the New York Liberty would visit the Los Angeles Sparks on June 21, fifteen years to the date of the league's inaugural game in 1997 featuring those same two teams.

March 28, 2011 Sheryl Swoopes, 40, returns to the WNBA, signing to play with the Tulsa Shock after a two-year hiatus. An inaugural member of the WNBA and a member of the league's All-Decade Team selected in 2006, Swoopes resume includes four WNBA championships as a member of the Houston Comets (1997-2000), three league MVP awards (2000, 2002, 2005) and three Defensive Player of the Year honors (2000, 2002, 2003).

April 7, 2011 The Washington Mystics sign a marquee partnership with Inova Health System, becoming the fifth WNBA team to have such a partnership. Players will wear Inova Hospital System's name and logo on the front of their home and away jerseys during the 2011 WNBA season.

April 7, 2011 The WNBA and partner adidas unveiled new uniforms for all 12 teams featuring Revolution 30 technology and women's basketball specific TECHFIT base layers.

April 11, 2011 The WNBA becomes the first professional sports league to conduct its annual Draft at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn. The Minnesota Lynx made Maya Moore the top overall selection of the 2011 WNBA Draft presented by adidas. Australian native Elizabeth Cambage, selected second by the Tulsa Shock, and Courtney Vandersloot, tapped third by the Chicago Sky, rounded out the top three picks.

April 21, 2011 Laurel J. Richie, a veteran of more than three decades in consumer marketing, corporate branding, public relations and corporate management, is appointed President of the WNBA, NBA Commissioner David Stern announced. Laurel leaves her post as Senior Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer for Girl Scouts of the USA to join the WNBA.

June 21, 2011 The Los Angeles Sparks host the New York Liberty at STAPLES Center in the WNBA's 15th Anniversary Game, played 15 years to the day of the league's inaugural matchup between the same two teams in LA. The Sparks win, 96-91.

July 23, 2011 In honor of the WNBA's 15th season, the league unveiled its "Top 15 Players of All Time" during a halftime ceremony live on ABC at the 2011 WNBA All-Star Game presented by adidas. With consideration given to on-court performance and ability, leadership, sportsmanship, and community service, as well as to contributions to team success and women's basketball, voting was conducted by fans, select national and WNBA-market media, and by current players and coaches. The players named were: Sue Bird, Tamika Catchings, Cynthia Cooper, Yolanda Griffith, Becky Hammon, Lauren Jackson, Lisa Leslie, Ticha Penicheiro, Cappie Pondexter, Katie Smith, Dawn Staley, Sheryl Swoopes, Diana Taurasi, Tina Thompson, and Teresa Weatherspoon.

August 9, 2011 In a road game at the Phoenix Mercury, Minnesota Lynx all-stars Lindsay Whalen and Seimone Augustus become the 35th and 36th players to to surpass the 3,000-point mark for their respective careers, but the first pair of teammates to eclipse the mark in the same game. In the process, Augustus also tied the Mercury's Diana Taurasi as the fastest player in WNBA history to reach 3,000 (151 games).

August 22, 2011 The WNBA and Boost Mobile, an industry leader in no-contract wireless service, announced a landmark multiyear marketing partnership that made Boost Mobile the first league-wide marquee partner of the WNBA. As part of the deal, the Boost Mobile brand logo was subsequently featured on the front of the game jerseys of 10 of the WNBA's 12 teams. It marked the first time the WNBA had a league partner with jersey branding for multiple teams throughout the season other than adidas, the league's official outfitter.

October 2, 2011 Despite falling to the host Minnesota Lynx in Game 1 of the WNBA Finals, Atlanta Dream forward Angel McCoughtry set Finals records for points in a quarter (19 in the third), points in a half (27 in the second), and consecutive points (14 from late in the first half into the third quarter).

October 5, 2011 The Atlanta Dream's Angel McCoughtry surpasses the WNBA Finals record (set by her in 2010) for most points in a single game with 38 in a loss to the host Minnesota Lynx.

October 7, 2011 In a celebration of its 15th season, the WNBA and partner Boost Mobile unveiled the Top 15 Moments in league history as voted by fans. The top moment was Teresa Weatherspoon's half-court shot at the buzzer to win Game 2 of the 1999 WNBA Finals for the New York Liberty and send that series to a decisive third game. Ranking second was the WNBA's first ever game (NY Liberty at LA Sparks, June 21, 1997); third was Sparks' center Lisa Leslie throwing down the first dunk in WNBA history in the first half of a game vs. the Miami Sol.

October 7, 2011 The Minnesota Lynx captured their first WNBA title with a 73-67 win over the Atlanta Dream. Lynx guard/forward Seimone Augustus was named Finals MVP after leading the Lynx to a sweep in the best-of-five series. Augustus posted 22 points and seven assists in Game 1 and had a franchise-playoff record 36 points in Game 2, including 15 in the fourth quarter.

LEAGUE TIMELINE

WASHINGTON MYSTICS 2013 MEDIA GUIDE

April 16, 2012 The 2012 WNBA Draft presented by Boost Mobile takes place at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, CT, marking the second straight year that the draft was held on the campus of the league's broadcast partner. Stanford's Nnemkadi Ogwumike (Sparks), Tennessee's Shekinna Stricklen (Storm), Notre Dame's Devereaux Peters (Lynx), Tennessee's Glory Johnson (Shock), and Miami's Shenise Johnson (Silver Stars) are the top five picks.

June 3, 2012 Angel McCoughtry of the Atlanta Dream sets the WNBA's single-game mark for most successful free throws without a miss, going 17-for-17 vs. Chicago.

June 15, 2012 With a win over Phoenix on June 15, the defending champion Minnesota Lynx set a WNBA record for the best start to a season, going 10-0 out of the gate before being upended by Seattle.

June 16, 2012 Already the WNBA's career steals leader, Tamika Catchings also took over the top spot in league history for career free throws made when she hit six of eight from the charity stripe against Chicago.

June 17, 2012 Connecticut's Tina Charles, with 23 points and 22 rebounds at Atlanta, became the first player in WNBA history to log three 20-20 games in a career.

July 14-Aug. 15, 2012 The WNBA temporarily stops play to give players the opportunity to compete in the 2012 Olympic Games in London. The U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball Team – comprised of 12 WNBA players – defeated France in the gold medal game. The win gave the United States women their fifth consecutive Olympic gold medal and, dating back to the bronze medal game in 1992, stretched the team's winning streak to 41 games.

Sept. 18, 2012 Already the WNBA's all-time leading scorer, Tina Thompson (Seattle) became the first player in the history of the league to surpass 7,000 career points with her jump shot at the 9:03 mark of the second quarter of the Storm's victory over visiting Chicago at KeyArena. The milestone capped a season in which Thompson also became the first WNBA player to top 15,000 minutes played and 2,450 field goals made.

Aug. 28, 2012 A put-back basket against San Antonio by Minnesota Lynx center McWilliams-Franklin, moved the 14-year veteran and six-time All-Star into first place on the WNBA's career list for offensive rebounds, surpassing the 1,049 of Yolanda Griffith.

Sept. 22, 2012 Temeka Johnson of the Tulsa Shock finished the regular season with the league's best single-season mark in history for three-point FG percentage (.531, 34 of 64). On the same day, Ticha Penicheiro of the Chicago Sky plays the final game of her career and, with two assists, increases her WNBA career record to 2,599.

Sept. 26, 2012 The WNBA Draft Lottery (to determine the order of selection of the 2013 WNBA Draft) was held for the first time at ESPN's studios in Bristol, Conn., live during the 6 p.m. ET edition of SportsCenter. The Phoenix Mercury ultimately won the top pick, followed in succession by the Chicago Sky, Tulsa Shock, and Washington Mystics.

Oct. 21, 2012 Indiana defeated the defending champion Minnesota Lynx 3-games-to-1, giving the Fever its first WNBA championship in franchise history. Following Game 4, an 87-78 home win at Indianapolis' Bankers Life Fieldhouse, Indiana forward Tamika Catchings was named MVP of the WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile. Catchings, a three-time Olympic gold medalist and the league's 2011 MVP, averaged 22.3 points, 6 rebounds, and 2 steals during the Finals.

Dec. 13, 2012 Following the league's Board of Governor's Meeting, the WNBA announces it will implement new rules regarding flopping and defensive three-seconds, while also extending the three-point line from 20 feet, 6 1/4 inches to 22 feet, 1 3/4 inches, consistent with the distance inherent in all FIBA competitions. The rules will go into effect beginning with the 2013 season.

March 28, 2013 The WNBA and ESPN announce an extension of their partnership for another six years, paving the way for WNBA games to be televised on ABC, ESPN, and ESPN2 through 2022. The announcement, made by John Skipper, President of ESPN, Inc. and Co-Chairman of the Disney Media Networks, and Laurel J. Richie, WNBA President, extends the WNBA's television relationship with ESPN to 26 years. With the deal, up to 30 live games will be televised on ABC, ESPN or ESPN2 each season, including exclusive telecasts of the WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile.

March 28, 2013 On the same day as the WNBA and ESPN announce an extension of their partnership, the league also introduced a new brand identity. The refreshed identity reflects how far the level of play has come in 16 years as stronger, more agile players have made the game more competitive. The cornerstone of the new WNBA visual identity is a more modern "Logowoman" -- the player silhouette within the logo -- that better embodies the athleticism and diversity of current WNBA players while leveraging the distinctive orange-and-oatmeal color scheme of the league's iconic game ball.

April 15, 2013 For the first time in the WNBA's 17 seasons, the league's Draft is televised live in primetime. The 2013 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm takes place for the third straight year at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn., this time airing live at 8 p.m. ET on ESPN2. One of the most anticipated draft classes in league history is led by the "3 to See" -- Brittney Griner of Baylor, Elena Delle Donne of Delaware, and Notre Dame's Skylar Diggins. The Phoenix Mercury select Griner with the No. 1 overall pick; the Chicago Sky then take Delle Donne with the No. 2 selection, and the Tulsa Shock claim Diggins third.

WNBA CARES

WASHINGTON MYSTICS 2013 MEDIA GUIDE

Through WNBA Cares, the WNBA is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people with a special emphasis on programs that inspire youth and promote education, health and wellness and youth and family development.

WNBA Cares goal alignment focuses on Philanthropy, Service, Legacy and Inspiring Women. Since WNBA Cares launched, the league, players and teams have:

- PHILANTHROPHY: Donated more than $11 million to charity, with more than $3.5 million raised in the fight against breast cancer
- SERVICE: More than 525,000 hours of hands-on service
- LEGACY: More than 40 places where kids and families can live, learn or play
- INSPIRATION: 27 current and former WNBA coaches and players have traveled to 27 countries across five continents as sport ambassadors inspiring youth and promoting health and wellness through basketball.

WNBA FIT

The NBA/WNBA FIT platform is the league's comprehensive health and wellness program that encourages physical activity and healthy living for children and families. Through programs such as Dribble to Stop Diabetes, Jamba Juice FIT Clinics and Coke Live Positively, the NBA/WNBA informs, engages and educates its fans in healthy living practices.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

The WNBA Breast Health Awareness program focuses on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative. This season, WNBA Breast Health Awareness Week will take place from August 18-August 24.

WNBA GREEN

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Green Game will take place during the June 25 game between the Phoenix Mercury and San Antonio Silver Stars

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

MONUMENTAL SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT FOUNDATION

Created in 2013, Monumental Sports & Entertainment Foundation supports the charitable efforts of the Washington Capitals, Mystics and Wizards. As these teams each fall under the Monumental Sports & Entertainment umbrella, aligning their causes and unifying their giving enables us to have the greatest impact on the community.

MSE Foundation is committed to the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area and focuses on the following five pillars to maximize its impact on the community:

- Education and scholarship
- Hunger and homelessness
- Military and veterans' affairs
- Pediatric health and fitness
- Youth basketball and hockey

Recognizing the community as our most important asset, MSE Foundation looks forward to continuing to creating programs that are designed to give back to the very community that supports our teams. In 2013 Monumental Sports & Entertainment Foundation, along with the Leonsis Foundation, will donate more than $1.5 million to local charities. Through MSE Foundation we pledge to continue investing our time and resources and serving as a positive influence and contributor in our community, and we hope to inspire others to do the same.

Programs:

Family-to-Family: 2012 marked the second-straight year that all three Monumental Sports & Entertainment teams collaborated on the Family-to-Family program, which the Wizards created 16 years ago. The program allows the Caps, Mystics and Wizards to "adopt" families in need who are nominated by local schools and nonprofit organizations. This past holiday season more than 20 families were adopted by the teams' charities, individual players and staff members.

The Family-to-Family program kicked off in November when wives and girlfriends of Wizards and Capitals players and coaches shopped for 82 adults and children adopted through the program. Participants included Bree Anderson, (fiancée of Wizards forward Trevor Ariza), Patrice Cleary, (wife of Wizards strength and conditioning coach Drew Cleary), April Dixon, (girlfriend of Wizards forward Trevor Booker), Lauren Hilario, (wife of Wizards center Nene), Eva Kodouskova, (fiancée of Wizards forward Jan Vesely), Ilana Nunn Okafor, (wife of Wizards center Emeka Okafor), Joni Sichting, (wife of Wizards assistant coach Jerry Sichting), Courtney Webster, (wife of forward Martell Webster) and Kathy Wittman, (wife of Wizards head coach Randy Wittman) along with Monika Hybnerova, (girlfriend of Capitals goaltender Michal Neuvirth) and Karin Johansson, (wife of Capitals assistant coach Calle Johansson). Clothing, educational items and toys were purchased for the children, while clothing and household items along with grocery gift cards were purchased for the parents and guardians. By the end of the day a full-sized JK Moving Services truck was filled with more than $25,000 in clothing, bikes, toys and presents for the families.

All of the adopted families were invited to a holiday party at Kettler Capitals Iceplex on Dec. 16. The children and families in attendance enjoyed an afternoon of refreshments, games and fun with team mascots G-Wiz and Slapshot, the Wizard Girls and Red Rockers, who were all on hand to help spread holiday cheer to the deserving families. The children were able to play basketball, skate on the Capitals ice, interact with Santa and have their faces painted. At the end of the event, the families left with bags overflowing with holiday gifts from the Caps, Wizards and Mystics.

To conclude the 2012 Family-to-Family program, Mystics player Matee Ajavon along with Wizards President Ernie Grunfeld, players Bradley Beal, Jordan Crawford, Nene, Chris Singleton, John Wall and Martell Webster, mascot G-Wiz and Wizard Girls delivered presents and spread holiday cheer to five underserved families in Washington, D.C., on Dec. 17.

Ajavon, Beal, Crawford, Nene, Singleton, Wall and Webster, along with Grunfeld, G-Wiz and the Wizard Girls, MSE staff members and local media boarded a bus at Verizon Center loaded with gifts for the families. The players spent the afternoon delivering presents to the Curtis, Flores and Short families in northeast Washington and Yates-Glenn and Young families in southeast Washington.

The families selected for participation in the 2012 Family-to-Family program were nominated by local schools and nonprofit organizations including The Salvation Army National Capital Area Command, The Women's Wing Organization, Catholic Charities, Browne Education Campus, Bright Beginnings, Shaw Community and Building Hope.

Everybody Wins! DC: During the 2011-12 school year 20 staff members from Monumental Sports & Entertainment (MSE) participated in the Everybody Wins! DC Power Lunch program, a literacy and mentoring program based in select elementary schools in the Washington metropolitan area. The goal of Power Lunch is to encourage children's interest in reading, expand their opportunities for success and facilitate meaningful volunteer contributions.

Through the Power Lunch program, MSE staff members – including employees from the Washington Capitals, Mystics, Wizards and Verizon Center – were paired with students at Garrison Elementary School in Washington, D.C., and Key Elementary School in Arlington, Va. Each week during the school year, MSE staff members took time out of their day to visit with their mentees, spending time reading and sharing conversation during the lunch hour. The program concluded in May with year-end celebrations with each partner school during which all of the mentors and mentees were recognized for their hard work and dedication to the Power Lunch program.

Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Washington: MSE Foundation and the Washington Mystics have partnered with Boys & Girls Club of Greater Washington (BGCGW), providing a $25,000 grant to the D.C.-based nonprofit in 2013. This money will be used to increase participation and promote basketball on a grassroots level in the Washington, D.C., metropolitan area. The MSE Foundation grant will fund scholarships for at-risk and underserved youth, girls' player clinics, coaching clinics and The Monumental Tournament of Champions, a Boys & Girls Club of Greater Washington organizational-wide basketball tournament. The Mystics also hope to help BGCGW start a girls' league for the 2013-14 season.

Junior Achievement: Monumental Sports & Entertainment Foundation is proud to serve as a storefront sponsor at Junior Achievement Finance Park in Fairfax, Va., where local students are able to build financial skills for life. Junior Achievement of Greater Washington provides students a real-world perspective of finance – one that is current, practical and easy to understand. Taking more than 15,000 middle school students each year into the world of business, Junior Achievement Finance Park is a month-long economics education program that introduces participants to personal financial planning and career exploration.

The Junior Achievement Finance Park experience begins in the classroom. The four-week classroom curriculum culminates with a day at Junior Achievement Finance Park, where students immerse themselves in a reality-based decision-making process that addresses aspects of individual and family budgeting, including housing, transportation, food, utilities, health care, investments, philanthropy and banking. The on-site activities are designed to allow students the opportunity to put into action what they have learned in the classroom and to understand the basic steps of maintaining a realistic personal budget. Two weeks of classroom follow-up allows students to use their new financial knowledge to explore career options and to set goals for their future. (continued on next page)

(continued) MSE Staff Service Projects: During the summer of 2012, Monumental Sports & Entertainment employees participated in three service projects. The Monumental Sports & Entertainment Foundation partnered on a project with USO-Metro in July, D.C. Central Kitchen in August and Rebuilding Together Arlington/ Fairfax/Falls Church in September.

Bullets alumni Bob Dandridge, Jack Marin and Larry Stewart and Capitals Hall-of-Fame alumnus Rod Langway participated alongside Monumental Sports & Entertainment staff members, Wizard Girls, Caps mascot Slapshot and USO-Metro volunteers in an Operation USO Care Package event in July at the USO Warehouse. Dandridge, Marin, Stewart, Langway, the Wizards Girls, Slapshot and MSE employees volunteered with a mix of civilians, active duty military members and military spouses and children to assemble military family care packages that service members who are deploying will send home to their families.

In August, Langway joined MSE staff members for morning meal prep at DC Central Kitchen. Throughout the session the Monumental Sports & Entertainment employees transformed 3,000 pounds of leftover food into 5,000 meals for 100 area homeless shelters, transitional homes and nonprofit organizations in Washington, D.C.

For the National Day of Service and Remembrance on Sept. 11, Dandridge and Langway volunteered with Monumental Sports & Entertainment staff members, Arlington County first responders and volunteers from Rebuilding Together Arlington/Fairfax/Falls Church to prepare Arlington County's Emergency Winter Shelter for its opening day. Volunteers cleaned and painted rooms throughout the building, installed bookshelves in the library and added mirrors and clothes hooks in the bathrooms. They also placed additional shelving and clothes bars to store donated clothing and assembled welcome kits for 100 homeless men and women.

Through these MSE Foundation staff service projects, 120 employees volunteered 500 hours of their time to local charities during the summer of 2012.

VERIZON CENTER

WASHINGTON MYSTICS 2013 MEDIA GUIDE

Verizon Center is a 20,000-seat multi-purpose sports and entertainment venue, owned and operated by Monumental Sports & Entertainment, in the Penn Quarter neighborhood of Chinatown in downtown Washington, D.C. The arena is home to the NBA's Washington Wizards, the NHL's Washington Capitals, the WNBA's Washington Mystics and the NCAA's Georgetown Hoyas men's basketball team.

Boasting an average of 220 events per year, Verizon Center is the heart of a $7 billion redevelopment that began 15 years ago when the arena was envisioned and built by late owner Abe Pollin and his wife, Irene Pollin, after previously building the Capital Centre arena in Landover, Md. Since the Pollin's realized their vision on Dec. 2, 1997, with the opening of the privately financed arena in downtown Washington, 36.5 million people have attended more than 3,087 events.

The surrounding neighborhood throughout the years has been rejuvenated by a plethora of restaurants, condominiums and businesses, making the Seventh Street corridor an entertainment destination.

Accrediting the revitalization of the downtown neighborhood to late owner Abe Pollin, and his wife Irene Pollin, for building Verizon Center(formerly known as MCI Center), the District of Columbia renamed the street in front of Verizon Center "Abe Pollin Way" in 2007.

In June 2010, Ted Leonsis became the majority owner of Verizon Center and formed Monumental Sports & Entertainment. The newly formed entity includes ownership of the NBA's Washington Wizards, the NHL's Washington Capitals, the WNBA's Washington Mystics and Verizon Center. Monumental Sports & entertainment also manages Kettler Capitals Iceplex and the Patriot Center at George Mason University.

As an arena in the heart of downtown Washington, D.C., Verizon Center has hosted a multitude of high-profile events in its history, ranging from the 1998 Stanley Cup Final to the NBA (2001) and WNBA (2002, 2007) All-Star games to the 2003 World Figure Skating Championship, the 2005 ACC Tournament, the first and second rounds of the NCAA Division I men's basketball tournament (1998, 2002, 2008) as well as the second and third rounds (2011), the 2006 East Regional Round and the 2009 NCAA Frozen Four men's hockey championship. In 2013, the arena will host the East Regional Round of the NCAA Division I men's basketball tournament for the second time.

Entertainment at the arena would not be complete without concerts and family shows ranging from all-time greats to current-day chart-topping artists. In the 15-year history of the arena some of the artists who have roamed the halls and mastered the stage at Verizon Center include: U2, Lady Gaga, Madonna, Coldplay, The Three Tenors, Barbra Streisand, Bon Jovi, Prince, Tim McGraw & Faith Hill, Beyonce, the Dalai Lama, Tina Turner, Keith Urban, Jeff Dunham, Christina Aguilera, Disney on Ice and WWE.

In terms of history, only two events have taken place each of the past 15 years at Verizon Center, as well as each of the past 38 plus years dating back to the old Capital Centre arena making them the longest tenured events between both buildings: the Harlem Globetrotters (1973) and the Washington International Horse Show (1975).

Located within the arena are 106 luxury suites, eight loge boxes, a high-definition center-hung scoreboard, an indoor basketball practice facility and 10 dressing rooms. The arena offers a variety of concession stands and restaurants with menu choices ranging from pizza at Papa John's to donuts at Dunkin Donuts. Additional arena fare includes hot dogs, crab cakes, chicken fingers and deli sandwiches. Kosher, vegetarian, vegan and gluten-free options are also available.

Other amenities in the arena include the private Owner's Club, the private Acela Club restaurant for club members, the Dewar's 12 Coaches Club, The Player's Club, The Clubhouse, The Monumental Theatre, The Greene Turtle Sports Bar & Grille, Team Store and VIDA Fitness and Bang Salon.

EXECUTIVE SUITES/PARTY PAVILION

A great way to enjoy events at Verizon Center is to entertain some friends and family or business associates in one of the 106 executive suites. The executive suites feature between 12 and 24 seats, a private seating area, refrigerator, a flat screen television and a private restroom. Additional VIP benefits for guests include membership to the Acela Club restaurant, early and late entry to events and access to premium food catering services by Levy Restaurants as they watch more than 220 sporting events and concerts held annually at Verizon Center.

The Captain Morgan Party Pavilion, overlooking the main floor of the arena, is another exciting option for entertaining up to 99 guests. The party pavilion features a glass-enclosed suite that can be customized for meetings and hospitality purposes and can be rented on an event-by-event basis.

Entertaining can be broken down into a group of 34, 65 or 99 guests in the party pavilion. Premium catering and food service options are also offered by Levy Restaurants.

HIGH-DEFINITION SCOREBOARD AND LINEAR LED BOARDS

Debuting during the 2007-2008 season, the high-definition LED scoreboard was the first true indoor high-definition scoreboard of its kind for arenas. The center-hung scoreboard exclusively features the Diamond Vision LED Fascia, corner stat displays and video boards driven by ANC Sports' patent pending VisionSOFT operating system. Sitting at 14 feet 5 inches high by 25 feet 2 inches wide, the new scoreboard provides the highest clarity of all the action, including video playback, and exhibits more than 68 billion colors. The scoreboard features four 6 millimeter video screens, four 10 millimeter LED video matrixes measuring 5 feet by 25 feet, and two 20 millimeter LED rings. More than 1,000 feet of linear LED boards encompass the upper bowl of the arena, as well as 400 feet of LED boards surrounding the lower bowl of the arena with full motion signage. Four additional LED displays highlight the top corners of the arena offering animation, 3D graphics and advertisements.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE FACILITY

The Washington Wizards and the Washington Mystics have an NBA/WNBA regulation size practice court inside the arena where all team practices are held. Located on the event level, players have easy access to and from the court. The practice court is also used for special events such as large news conferences and receptions.

LOCKER ROOMS/DRESSING ROOMS

Backstage at Verizon Center are 10 dressing rooms, including the Wizards, Capitals, Mystics and Hoyas team locker rooms and NBA and NHL visitor's and officials locker rooms. The Wizards and Capitals locker rooms include a training room, steam room, hydrotherapy pool, team lounge and weight room.

OWNER'S CLUB

A premium benefit for VIP owner's seats full season-ticket holders is the Owner's Club. The club provides unlimited fine dining and a complimentary full-service bar in an ultimate setting. Accessible pregame, in-game and postgame for Wizards home games, the club provides sole access for the 16 owner's seats full season-ticket holders and Monumental Sports & Entertainment's ownership group and their guests.

ACELA CLUB RESTAURANT

The Acela Club is a sophisticated and energetic restaurant available for club members and their guests offering a five-star Chef's Table buffet and a full a la carte menu. The restaurant overlooks the court and the ice and combines gourmet dining with world-class service from Levy Restaurants. The Acela Club is also used for private events.

DEWAR'S 12 COACHES CLUB

Washington Wizards, Washington Capitals, Washington Mystics and Georgetown Hoyas Gold VIP ticket holders can enjoy the Dewar's 12 Coaches Club before, during and after games. Located on the event floor, this private lounge serves hors d'oeuvres and beverages in the perfect setting.

THE PLAYER'S CLUB

Located on the Lexus Suite Level, The Player's Club is a members-only club offering a unique blend of seating, fine dining, entertainment and separate meeting spaces. The 5,000 square-foot space features a plush décor with lavish wood finishes inclusive of a full-bar with top-shelf selections, a pool table, private chilled wine coolers, a fireplace, wireless Internet access, private restrooms, premium catering services and leather stadium seating. Membership to the club includes year-round access to the Washington Wizards, Washington Capitals, Washington Mystics and Georgetown Hoyas home games with views overlooking the arena bowl and the National Portrait Gallery located next door to Verizon Center.

THE CLUBHOUSE

The Clubhouse is located just inside Verizon Center's main lobby on F Street on the second floor. Open an hour before and an hour after events, The Clubhouse offers a relaxing atmosphere for drinks, appetizers and a main course.

MONUMENTAL THEATRE

A perfect setting for business meetings throughout the year and special events, the 100-seat Monumental Theatre is located on the fourth level of Verizon Center. The theatre-style room offers a large telescreen display for presentations and a full sound system.

THE GREENE TURTLE SPORTS BAR & GRILLE

Opening their first franchise location outside of the state of Maryland, The Greene Turtle Sports Bar & Grille is the perfect setting to catch a bite to eat and drink before, during or after a game or event at Verizon Center. Based out of Ocean City, Md., The Greene Turtle Sports Bar & Grille offers an appetite for all at an affordable price.

TEAM STORE

Team Store, located just inside Verizon Center's main lobby on F Street, is every patron's favorite place to shop. The store offers team merchandise for the Washington Wizards, Washington Capitals, Washington Mystics and the Georgetown Hoyas men's basketball team.

VIDA FITNESS AND BANG SALON

Located at the corner of Seventh and F Streets NW, VIDA Fitness is redefining fitness in Washington, D.C. The perfect place to work on your mind, body and spirit to achieve a fuller and more balanced life, VIDA Fitness offers a calming and rejuvenating space that incorporates all of the senses. The 28,000 square foot space brings state-of-the-art fitness equipment, group programming in yoga and pilates, mixed martial arts by Team Lloyd Irvin and two endless pools exclusive to the club. Bang Salon/Spa caps off the experience by offering cuts to color, facials to hair removal and a head-to-toe selection of salon and spa services including Japanese soaking tubs.
